CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Direct all Missouri home game credential requests to Athletic Strategic Communications, University of Missouri, Box 677, Columbia, MO 65205. Media can also request credentials through e-mail, by sending a message to Associate Director of Media Relations Kate Lakin. Requests should be made at least one week prior to the game.

MEDIA RELATIONS

F.Y.I.

The MU Strategic Communications Office will provide rosters and game notes and for the Tigers and for opponents (when available) at each home game. Starting lineups will be available in the Audrey J. Walton Track - Soccer Field - Stadium press box 10 minutes before game time.

INTERVIEWS

Members of the 2014 Missouri soccer team and coaching staff will be available for interviews by appointment only. In consideration for the student-athletes and their schedules, please request player interviews at least one day in advance. During the week, interviews will primarily be conducted following practice. Please contact Kate Lakin in the Missouri Media Relations Office at (573) 882-2531 or lakinke@missouri.edu for interview availability and practice times. University of Missouri policy prohibits the releasing of student-athletes' home phone numbers to members of the media.

POST-GAME INTERVIEWS

Coach Blitz will conduct post-game interviews in a designated area after a brief cooling-off period. A list of requests for player interviews should be submitted 15 minutes before the completion of the game. Player interviews will be conducted immediately following Coach Blitz's remarks. Only credentialed media personnel will be permitted onto the soccer field.

SEASON TICKET INFORMATION

For information on how to purchase soccer season tickets, call the University of Missouri ticket office at 1-800-CAT-PAWS or 884-PAWS in Columbia. Ticket order forms may also be obtained by visiting Mizzou's official website at www.mutigers.com.

Missouri soccer is expecting an exciting home slate, with non-conference games against Northwestern, UT Martin, Montana and Cal State Fullerton. The Tigers also host Southeastern Conference foes LSU, Kentucky, Vanderbilt, Alabama, and Arkansas.-

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS MICHAEL ALDEN

Mike Alden has been at the helm of Missouri athletics since 1998 and it's no shock his tenure has produced the most comprehensive run of athletic and academic success in school history.

History-making landmarks have occurred each year under Alden's watch and while each event has been significant, including three more league titles in 2013-14, few were as impactful as Missouri's transition into the Southeastern Conference in July 2012.

A former student-athlete, coach and President of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics with family roots in Central Missouri, Alden has always understood the importance of Mizzou to the entire state of Missouri and helped usher in a new era with that move to the SEC, which has resulted in record-breaking facility growth, ticket sales and fan/alumni interest.

In 2014-15 Missouri begins its third season in the SEC and comes after 16-of-20 sport programs advanced to postseason play.

While Mizzou has maintained its competitive excellence since the move into the SEC, Tiger student-athletes continued to soar in the classroom ranking among Southeastern Conference leaders in both Graduation Success Rates and Academic Progress Rates.

That surge is a stark contrast from how Missouri looked prior to Alden's arrival in 1998. When the West Chicago, Ill., native took charge Mizzou ranked near the bottom of the league in on-field success, facility development and fund-raising. Since beginning his 17-year stint in Columbia however, Alden has seen several programs rise to the level of national championship contenders, highlighted by conference championships in football, men's basketball, volleyball, soccer, softball, baseball and wrestling, including three league titles last season alone.

In 2013-14, the Tigers added to their on-field success, earning an SEC East Division title in football and an unprecedented undefeated regular season and SEC championship in volleyball. The Tigers also won their second consecutive Mid-American Conference title in wrestling and crowned yet another national champion on the mat when true freshman J'den Cox, a Columbia native, became just the 14th wrestler to win a national title as a true freshman in the 84-year history of the sport.

While conference affiliation fueled uncertainty for many institutions, Alden and his staff helped secure the second largest donation in the history of the University of Missouri, a $30 million gift in 2012 courtesy of the Kansas City Sports Trust, kick-starting an incredible $200 million facility improvement plan. The support and growth didn't stop there. In 2013 Alden and his team also cultivated singular donations of $6.4M and $8.3M to continue moving Missouri Athletics into the next phase of its facility-growth plan and the aggressive recruitment of supporters has the plan impacting nearly all of Missouri's 20 varsity sports teams, including a renovation to Memorial Stadium, which will make the home of Tiger Football one of the finest in America. Through capital campaign efforts, Alden has overseen over $265 million in private gifts for Tiger Athletics and in fall 2014, Mizzou's Memorial Stadium will unveil a new east side tower that will redefine the city of Columbia's skyline.

Competitive excellence and facility growth just begins to tell the story of Alden's impact at Mizzou. Named the NACDA Athletics Director of the Year in 2008, Alden has developed into one of the nation's most revered administrators during his time in Columbia. His 17 consecutive years at the helm of Mizzou Athletics is the second-longest run in school history, behind only the 20 consecutive served by Don Faurot (1946-66), and that longevity is no small accomplishment considering the university had five athletics directors in an eight year stretch.

Alden has incorporated three core values into the mission of intercollegiate athletics at Missouri. The mission statement of "Preparing Champions for Life through Academic Integrity, Social Responsibility and Competitive Excellence" has guided Missouri in becoming one of America's most well-regarded and visible athletics programs.

Last season Missouri ranked No. 2 in the SEC in Graduation and Academic Progress Rates, while the overall health of MU's athletics programs is at an all-time high. Each year Missouri is able to tout the impressive classroom performances of its student-athletes and annually receives academic recognition from the NCAA.

Socially, Missouri student-athletes have seen tremendous growth, from coach and student-athlete involvement with Big Brothers-Big Sisters and The Food Bank for Central and Northeast Missouri, to local children's hospitals and Habitat for Humanity. Missouri Athletics not only makes an impact on the playing fields, but in the lives of the community it serves. In addition, Mizzou Athletics is heavily involved in the United Way and prides itself on having 100% involvement from its department each fall.

Alden's legacy will transcend his program's consistent success in the classroom, socially and in competition. Upon his appointment as Director of Athletics in 1998, Missouri faced an uncertain future as it entered the Big 12 Conference era. Competing with an annual budget of just $13.7 million at the time of his arrival, Alden has grown Missouri's operating fortunes to a record $85 million and has added state-of-the art facilities and amenities at nearly every venue in the Sports Park at Mizzou. Overall, Alden has helped lead a record $233.2 million facility resurgence for MU athletics since his arrival.

Highly regarded by his peers, Alden's success at Missouri has earned him national notoriety amongst the NCAA hierarchy. He has helped to drive policy that has not only shaped the current landscape of intercollegiate athletics, but has paved the way for the future growth of college sports as a whole.

A few of Alden's NCAA leadership committees include:

- NCAA Leadership Council (Past Chair)
- National Association of College Directors of Athletics (Past President)
- Division I Athletic Directors Association Board of Directors (Past President)
- NCAA Management Council
- NCAA Championship/Competition Cabinet
- NCAA Oversight and Monitoring Group

Alden and his family have also been heavily involved in the Columbia community, working with local figures to help improve the lives of area residents through their involvement with the Alzheimer's Association, the Susan G. Komen Foundation, The Food Bank for Central and Northeast Missouri, True North, the United Way, Salvation Army, Nora Stewart Early Learning Center, the Office of Cultural Affairs (arts in the community) and the Commerce Bank Board of Directors. Alden has also personally raised more than $100,000 for the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

Alden and his wife, Roxanne (Rockie), have a son, Jake, who attends Purdue University.

TIMOTHY M. WOLFE

President

Timothy M. Wolfe is the 23rd president of the four-campus University of Missouri System—one of the nation's largest public research university systems with more than 75,000 students and nearly a half million alumni worldwide.

Since joining the university in 2012, Mr. Wolfe's top priorities have included increasing overall awareness of the role the system's four campuses play in advancing the education, economy, health, innovation, arts, culture and the overall quality of life across the state of Missouri; leading the campuses in a strategic planning process that sets a clear strategy for success in the next five to ten years; finding and implementing opportunities for more efficiencies across the system; investing in the university's human capital and expanding research and economic development initiatives.

Part of his success in leading the university forward is due to Mr. Wolfe's recognized leadership in recruiting, building and leading successful teams by creating innovative strategies and clear execution plans across complex enterprises. He has more than 30 years of experience in information technology, infrastructure software, consulting and sales leadership. He began his career in 1980 at IBM Corporation in Missouri, first as a sales representative in Jefferson City then as a manager in Kansas City. For the next 20 years, he assumed progressively more responsible management positions, leading to vice president and general manager of the global distribution sector.

From 2000 to 2003, Mr. Wolfe served as executive vice president of Covansys, a global consulting and technology services company headquartered in Michigan. In 2003, he joined Novell, a leading provider of infrastructure software. As President of the Americas and as a member of the senior management team for the organization, he was responsible for more than 3,000 employees and partner firms in the United States, Canada and Latin America. Wolfe was influential in developing the company's overall strategy, product development, mergers and acquisitions, marketing investments and community service initiatives.

Mr. Wolfe grew up in Columbia, and is an alumnus of the University of Missouri-Columbia, graduating in 1980 with a BS from the Trulaske College of Business. In 1995, he graduated from Harvard Business School's Advanced Management Program.

Mr. Wolfe serves on several academic and civic boards and is married to Molly Wolfe. They have twin teenagers, daughter, Madison, and son, Tyler.

Chancellor

R. Bowen Loftin became chancellor of the University of Missouri Feb. 1, 2014. He is Mizzou's 22nd chief executive officer. He is also a professor of physics at MU.

Loftin was president of Texas A&M University from 2010 to 2014, following eight months as interim president and four years as a university vice president assigned as the chief executive officer of Texas A&M's Galveston branch campus, where he was also a professor of maritime systems engineering.

Before joining Texas A&M, Loftin served at Old Dominion University in Norfolk, Va., as a professor of electrical and computer engineering and a professor of computer science. He was Old Dominion's director of simulation programs and had responsibility for the institution's graduate programs in modeling and simulation. He also served as executive director of the Virginia Modeling, Analysis and Simulation Center.

Earlier in his career, he was a professor in and chair of the Department of Computer Science and director of the NASA Virtual Environments Research Institute at the University of Houston.

Loftin earned a bachelor's degree in physics from Texas A&M in 1970. He earned a master's degree in physics in 1973 and a doctorate in physics in 1975, both from Rice University.

Loftin is a frequent consultant to industry and government in the areas of modeling and simulation, advanced training technologies and scientific/engineering data visualization. He is the author or co-author of more than 100 technical publications.

Loftin has served on many advisory committees and panels sponsored by governmental and professional organizations. His citations and honors include the University of Houston-Downtown Awards for Excellence in Teaching and in Service (twice), the American Association of Artificial Intelligence Award for an innovative application of artificial intelligence, NASA's Space Act Award, the NASA Public Service Medal and the 1995 NASA Invention of the Year Award. In addition, he has received the IEEE Computer Society's Meritorious Service Award (2005), the IEEE Virtual Reality Conference Career Award (2008), and is a Charter Fellow of the National Academy of Inventors.

COACHING STAFF

BRYAN BLITZ

Head Coach • 19th season
Overall Record: 241-202-29
Mizzou Record: 196-158-21
Tulsa (1987)

Bryan Blitz begins his 19th season at the helm of the Tigers soccer program and enters 2014 with a 196-158-21 record at Missouri since he was hired as the program's first head coach in 1996. A dedicated coach, there is little time off the field when he is not working to improve his team. Making an immediate impact to the program with his stellar recruiting techniques, Blitz has set a standard by enlisting some of the nation's top players each season.

During the 2014 campaign, Blitz led the Tigers to an 8-9-3 record and a 4-3-3 mark in SEC action. During the year, Mizzou knocked off three top-25 teams, which were the most wins over ranked opponents were the most for the Tigers since 2008. Missouri recorded its first ranked win with a 1-0 defeat over No. 7 Florida, then handed No. 7 South Carolina only its second loss of the season on Oct. 18 and posted a dramatic 2-1 double-overtime win at No. 25 Kentucky on Oct. 25. The Tigers also were in contention almost every game of the 2013 season, with only one loss coming by more than one goal. In fact, Missouri played six overtime contests, the most since the 2009 season.

In the program's first season in the Southeastern Conference, Blitz led the Tigers to a 14-7-1 season and their fifth NCAA Tournament berth. The squad's 14 wins tie for the second-most in a single-season. Mizzou also recorded an 8-5 SEC mark and advanced to the semifinals of the SEC Tournament in Orange Beach, Ala.

After a 7-10-2 season in 2010, Blitz led the Tigers to a 12-8-1 record in 2011 despite 13 players who were new to the program. Mizzou set a new program record for non-conference winning percentage (.909) during the year and tied the team's consecutive wins record (seven).

In 2009 Missouri reached new highs as the team claimed the Big 12 Regular Season title for the first time in school history. Blitz was honored as the Big 12 Coach of the Year for his work to mark the second time in his career he earned the honor.

In 2008 when the Tigers had arguably their most successful season in program history. Blitz directed his team to a 16-5-2 mark, the Big 12 Conference Tournament championship and into the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the second consecutive season. Over the course of the year, Mizzou set school records with wins (16), fewest losses (five), shutouts (12), fewest goals allowed (19) and goals against average (0.80), among others. The Tigers advanced once again to the second round of the NCAA Tournament, an event Missouri hosted for the fourth time, but fell to Illinois in a penalty kick shootout after 110 minutes of play.

In 2007, Blitz directed his young Mizzou squad to a 13-8-1 record and the third NCAA Tournament berth in program history. Playing once again at friendly Walton Stadium, Mizzou advanced to the second round of the tournament for just the second time after defeating Southeast Missouri State (SEMO) in a shootout. The Tigers came up just short in the second round, falling to eventual national champion USC, 1-0, in overtime.

Over the course of the season, Missouri reached No. 5 in the national rankings, its highest-ever, and received unprecedented accolades from the Big 12 Conference. Freshman Alysha Bonnick became the first Tiger to earn a post-season award after winning Big 12 Rookie of the Year honors and Blitz was honored as the Big 12 Coach of the Year. Additionally, sophomore Kristin Andrighetto was just the second Missouri player to earn a spot on the All-Big 12 first team. Four Tigers were named to the second team and three players were selected to the All-Newcomer team. On the national level, Andrighetto earned All-America fourth team honors from Soccer Buzz and Bonnick was a Freshman All-America second team selection from two different publications.

In his first year with Missouri, Blitz began putting his skills to the test during the inaugural season of Tiger women's soccer. MU finished the year 6-14 and 4-5 in league play.

The Tigers continued to improve under Blitz's tutelage and logged a 7-12 record, going 3-7 in Big 12 play during the following season. Missouri's second year also saw the national spotlight as Jennifer Kram was named to the Soccer America National Collegiate Team of the Week—MU's first national recognition. The accolades would not stop there however as Mizzou placed two athletes, Nikki Thole (third team) and Kristin Boeker (honorable mention) to the Soccer Buzz Freshman All-America team.

In 1998, Blitz led Missouri to its first winning season going 11-9-1 and 6-5 in the Big 12. The Tigers also placed Thole and Boeker to All-Big 12 teams and had five athletes (Thole, Boeker, Jackie Adamec, Amy Timmermann and Erin Grimsley) honored as all-tournament team members.

MU's fourth season proved to be a record-setting campaign for the Tigers as Blitz led Missouri to a 14-8-1 season record and posted a 6-3-1 Big 12 mark in 1999. The Tigers also advanced to their first NCAA Tournament. The Tigers fell to Marquette in their national post-season debut, but put forth a strong showing as they took the Golden Eagles to a 3-2 quadruple overtime loss.

Despite the loss, Blitz coached his athletes to an astounding season. Thole received All-America accolades from the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA), SoccerBuzz and College Soccer Online.

By 2000, Blitz had conditioned his squad into a fine tuned machine. The Tigers earned their highest ranking in the NSCAA poll after defeating No. 18 ranked Florida State and No. 12 ranked Wake Forest in back-to-back games to win a 12th-place ranking. The Tigers split the season 10-10 with a 5-5 Big 12 record.

In 2001, Blitz reloaded the Tiger program known for its physical intensity with nine newcomers. The young squad quickly made its mark going 13-8, with a 5-5 Big 12 mark, and set a new precedent with six shutouts on the season. In addition, the Tigers defended their first perfect game in school history outshooting Indiana State 34-0 on their way to a 4-0 victory.

In 2002 the Tigers posted an 11-7-2 record with a 5-4-1 mark in the Big 12 to finish fourth in league standings. The season proved arduous as the Tigers played a record six overtime games during the year. Mizzou had two athletes named to the SoccerBuzz All-Central Region teams in Lacy Moore and Jennifer Nobis.

Keeping stride in 2003, Blitz successfully navigated his squad through one of the toughest schedules in the country. Facing 10 opponents ranked in the nation's top-25 at some point during the season, Mizzou made a late season rally advancing to both the Big 12 Tournament championship final and the NCAA second round. Highlighting the push, the Tigers overcame the odds to record an amazing come-from-behind victory over No. 4 ranked Texas A&M (5-4). Mizzou also picked up the program's first win over No. 22 Nebraska rolling the Huskers ,3-2, during Big 12 Tournament play.

Rounding out the season with a 12-11-1 record and an eighth-place Big 12 finish, the Tiger's made history as the first No. 8 seed to claim a victory during Big 12 Tournament play.

In 2004, Blitz led the Tigers to a sixth-place finish in the Big 12. Mizzou defeated two ranked teams in 2004, including then-No. 6 ranked Texas A&M, recording the program's first-ever win in College Station, Texas.

In 2005, under Blitz's direction, the Tigers posted a 9-8-3 overall record and qualified for the Big 12 Tournamtent for the ninth time in the conference's 10 year history. In 2006 he took the Tigers to a 7-0 start as the squad reeled off five straight shutouts to begin the season.

Blitz began his head coaching career at Butler University (Ind.) as the program's inaugural head coach in 1991. In his fifth season, he took the Bulldogs from obscurity to the national spotlight in an undefeated run through the Midwestern Collegiate Conference and the team's first national ranking. Blitz earned the Midwestern Collegiate Conference Coach of the Year award for his work in the 1995 season and received an invitation to help coach the U.S. Women's National Team.

Developing Blitz's unique collegiate coaching perspective, he has worked and played in soccer communities around the world improving his knowledge and abilities. Blitz traveled to England to play for one year while he was in college. He returned to the states and to the University of Tulsa, where Blitz helped start the Golden Hurricane women's program as an assistant coach in 1987.

He took two years off from coaching to play in the Southwest Indoor Soccer League and the Northeast Super Soccer League (in Dallas and New York) before a desire to earn a master's degree in business led him to Butler, where he met his wife, Alie. There, he became a graduate assistant for the men's team and two years later took the reins as a women's head coach for the first time.

BRIAN DOOLEY

Associate Head Coach
Second Season at Mizzou
Nova Southeastern (1987)

With over 25 years of college coaching experience, Mizzou Associate Head Coach Brian Dooley is in his second year on the Tiger sideline.

In his first year with the Tigers, Dooley helped Missouri to an 8-9-3 record and a 4-3-3 mark in SEC action. During the year, Mizzou knocked off three top-25 teams, which were the most wins over ranked opponents were the most for the Tigers since 2008. Missouri recorded its first ranked win with a 1-0 defeat over No. 7 Florida, then handed No. 7 South Carolina only its second loss of the season on Oct. 18 and posted a dramatic 2-1 double-overtime win at No. 25 Kentucky on Oct. 25.

Dooley spent the last 14 seasons as head coach at Florida Atlantic, where he accumulated a career record of 139-113, including seven 11-plus win seasons. He led the squad to Atlantic Sun Conference regular season titles in 2002, 2003 and 2005 and the 2005 team also claimed the Atlantic Sun Tournament title to earn the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament berth. That season, Dooley was honored as the Atlantic Sun Coach of the Year.

The following year, Florida Atlantic's first in the Sun Belt Conference, the Owls led all Division I teams in shutout percentage (.762), holding opponents scoreless in 16 of 21 matches.

Before his time at FAU, Dooley spent nine seasons at Barry (Fla.) University, as both head coach (1994-99) and assistant coach (1990-94). The Lady Bucs accumulated a record of 53-12-4 in his four seasons as head coach, including a trip to the NCAA Division II national championship game in 1995. While an assistant at Barry, the team earned the 1992 and 1993 Division II national titles.

Dooley played collegiately at Florida International and was a midfielder on FIU's 1982 NCAA Division II national championship team. He began his coaching career as an assistant women's coach at FIU (1986-1990).

Dooley received a bachelor's degree in secondary education from Nova Southeastern University in 1987. He and his wife, Marie, are the parents of three boys: Sean (24), Connor (21) and Ciaran (14).

KATIE ELY

Assistant Coach
Second Season at Mizzou
Fairfield (2007)

Katie Ely returns for her second season as an assistant coach with the Mizzou soccer program.

In 2013, Ely helped goalkeeper McKenzie Sauerwein set numerous school records, including saves. As a team, the Tigers went 8-9-3 and Missouri knocked off three top-25 teams during the year, which were the most wins over ranked opponents were the most for the Tigers since 2008.

"I am so excited to be a part of the Mizzou soccer family," Ely said. "With the entrance into the SEC, this is a great time for the program. I look forward to being a part of their success in a new conference and on a national level. It's an honor and privilege to be here."

Ely came to Mizzou from Duke, where she served as the goalkeeper coach for the past two seasons. In her two years in Durham, Ely helped the Blue Devils advance to the NCAA College Cup both years. The squad played in the national championship game in 2011 and the final four in 2012. In her two years with the program, Duke compiled a record of 37-10-3, including program records of 22 wins and just four losses in 2011. Under Ely's tutelage, the Blue Devil goalkeepers set single season records in shutouts (16), goals against average (0.48) in 2011. The keepers' save percentage of .857 in 2011 also ranks second on Duke's single-season list.

Before her time at Duke, Ely spent four seasons as an assistant coach at Syracuse. With the Orange, she coached goalkeepers who set the career saves and shutouts records and earned All-BIG EAST Rookie Team honors.

Ely, a 2007 graduate of Fairfield (Conn.) University, helped the Stags to the 2002 MAAC regular season title and the 2005 MAAC Tournament crown. She is still scattered throughout Fairfield's career records list, as she ranks first in saves average, fifth in saves and sixth in wins, shutouts and goals against average.

Ely holds a bachelor's degree in history from Fairfield and a master's degree in public administration from Syracuse. She holds a U.S.S.F. "B" coaching license and an NSCAA National Goalkeeper License.

JASON CARRERAS

Volunteer Assistant Coach
First Season at Mizzou
San Francisco State (2004)

Jason Carreras is in his first season as volunteer assistant coach with the Mizzou soccer program.

"We're excited to welcome Jason to the Mizzou soccer family," Missouri Head Coach Bryan Blitz said. "His vast knowledge and experience will be an asset to our program."

Familiar with Blitz and the Mizzou soccer program, Carreras worked the Missouri's summer camps from 1999-2002 and again in 2014.

"I am beyond elated to make the jump from junior college soccer to Division I, and I am even more excited to be part of such a prestigious institution and well-respected soccer family at the University of Missouri," Carreras said. "I look forward to combining my prior coaching experience with the abundance of new coaching knowledge that I will acquire at Mizzou in order to contribute to the success of this program. My goal is to learn and contribute as much as possible to the program, while at the same time impacting the lives of the players in a way that will benefit them on the pitch as well as off of it."

Prior to his appointment as head women's soccer coach at Shasta, Carreras spent two years at Red Bluff High School. In his first year at Red Bluff, Carreras led the junior varsity women's squad to an undefeated season. He was tapped to lead the varsity team the following year and helped them win the first league title in program history.

In addition to coaching soccer, Carreras also taught English at Red Bluff and Silver Valley High School from 2009-13. Carreras played for Shasta, a two-year school, in 2000 and 2001, before he moved on to San Francisco State.

A graduate from San Francisco State, Carreras earned a bachelor's degree in liberal studies in from the school in 2004. He is currently pursuing his master's degree in education with an emphasis in educational leadership from Grand Canyon. Carreras and his wife Kylie have one son, Braxton.

DUSTIN CASEY

Director of Operations
First Season at Mizzou
Mizzou (2014)

Dustin Casey enters his first season as Mizzou's Director of Soccer Operations. In his role with the Tigers, Casey helps with all facets of the day-to-day aspects of the program and spearheads the team's travel and gameday operations.

Most recently, Casey worked in the Fans First Representative for the Kansas City Chiefs during the 2012 and 2013 football seasons, as well as interning with the club the last two summers.

As an undergraduate student, he also worked at the MizzouRec for three years and spent one semester each with the Mizzou Volleyball and Football programs.

Casey played for Mizzou's Wheelchair basketball team from 2009-14 and was named the team's defensive MVP the last four seasons.

A native of Copeland, Kan., Casey graduated with a bachelor's degree in Sports Management in 2013 and is working toward a graduate degree at Mizzou.

BARBARA MANINGAT

Director of Multimedia
Third Season at Mizzou
Missouri (2012)

With the Tigers, Maningat oversees the team's social media, video and branding efforts and assists with media relations duties. She has made the program's twitter account, @MizzouSoccer, one of the top women's soccer accounts in the nation and ranked first among all Southeastern Conference teams in number of followers.

In addition to her work with the soccer program, Maningat also works as a videographer with U.S. Soccer. She traveled to Portugal with the U.S. Women's National Team for the 2014 Algarve Cup and spent time at different friendlies and team training camps.

Previously Maningat did marketing for Newsy Videos and managed Newsy's social media accounts, as well as worked as a reporter. She was also an MU Journalism Ambassador.

Previously, Maningat served as The England Football Association's first-ever intern with its video productions division FATV in London, United Kingdom. She has also spent time with MLS team Sporting Kansas City where she produced broadcast video packages for the Sporting KC Network and freelanced for the Fox Soccer Channel.

A Platte City, Mo., native, Maningat graduated with honors from Mizzou with a bachelor of journalism with an emphasis in convergence journalism and minor in business in 2012. She is working toward a master of journalism in strategic communication.

SAM LAWSON

Director of Performance Analysis
Second Season at Mizzou
University Campus Suffolk (2012)

Sam Lawson returns for his second season at Mizzou as the Director of Performance Analysis. With the Tigers, Lawson handles game and practice film and coordinating video exchange.

Lawson came to Mizzou from New Zealand, where he served as Performance Analysis for the Napier City Rovers of the Central Premier League. Wtih the Rovers, he provided game and post-match analysis for players and coaches.

He also spent time as a Performance Analyst with Hawkes Bay United in Napier, New Zealand from December 2012 - March 2013. Before his move to New Zealand, Lawson worked as the Academy Video Analyst at the Ipswich Town Football Club in Ipswich, Suffolk, England.

Lawson spent the first 16 years of his life in Germany before moving to the United Kingdom in 2007. He earned a degree in Sport and Exercise Science from University Campus Suffolk in 2012 and is working towards a master's degree at Mizzou.

UNIVERSITY of MISSOURI

Celebrating

A LANDMARK ANNIVERSARY

The University of Missouri turned 175 years old on Feb. 11, 2014, thanks to public and private investment and the forethought of 900 residents who donated land and cash to establish the first public university west of the Mississippi River. Today MU is a global leader in teaching and research.

Thank you for your enduring support of our great flagship university.

OPPONENTS

Since its formation in 1933, the SEC has directed and organized interscholastic athletic competitions, conducted tournaments and prescribed eligibility rules for student-athletes. The Conference also facilitates and assists its member institutions in maintaining intercollegiate athletic programs compatible with the highest standards of education and competitive sports.

The SEC's mission statement reflects the priorities of the league. "The purpose of the Southeastern Conference is to assist its member institutions in the maintenance of programs of intercollegiate athletics which are compatible with the highest standards of education and competitive sports."

The Southeastern Conference won seven national championships in 2013-14: Baseball (Vanderbilt); Equestrian (Georgia); Men's Golf (Alabama); Gymnastics (Florida); Softball (Florida); Women's Swimming & Diving (Georgia); and Women's Outdoor Track & Field (Texas A&M). The SEC also had a national runner-up in six sports, including: Men's Basketball (Kentucky); Equestrian (South Carolina); Football (Auburn); Softball (Alabama); Men's Indoor Track & Field (Arkansas); and Men's Outdoor Track & Field (Florida).

In its history, the SEC has won 211 national championships, 120 men's and 90 women's titles. Since 2000, the SEC has won 94 national crowns, including 48 men's titles and 46 women's titles.

• In the "big three" men's sports - football, basketball and baseball, the SEC has won 14 national championships during the last eight academic years. The league has won seven of the last eight football national championships.

• Since 2006, the SEC has had a national champion in 17 of its 21 sponsored sports - football, men's basketball, baseball, men's indoor track & field, men's outdoor track & field, women's indoor track & field, women's outdoor track & field, women's swimming & diving, gymnastics, women's tennis, men's tennis, men's swimming and diving, equestrian, men's golf, women's golf, softball and women's basketball.

The Southeastern Conference had 46 Capital One Academic All-Americans in 2013-14. The league had 17 student-athletes earn first-team honors. The Capital One Academic All-America Teams are voted on by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). The 46 student-athletes represent 11 of the SEC 14 schools while seven schools had at least one person on the first-team. Since 2003, the SEC has had 232 student-athletes earn first-team Capital One Academic All-America status.

The 17 SEC student-athletes who earned Capital One Academic All-America first-team status in 2013-14 were: Florida women's swimmer Elizabeth Beisel; LSU men's track athlete Joseph Caraway; Alabama women's tennis player Mary Daines; Florida men's swimmer Brad deBorde; Alabama softball player Molly Fichtner; Alabama softball player Kaila Hunt; Alabama gymnast Kim Jacob; Auburn volleyball player Camila Jersonsky; Alabama softball player Haylie McCleney; Alabama women's golfer Stephanie Meadow; Georgia football player Aaron Murray; Tennessee softball player Ellen Renfroe; Kentucky men's soccer player Tyler Riggs; Georgia women's swimmer Laura Ryan; Tennessee softball player Madison Shipman; Alabama men's golfer Cory Whitsett; and Alabama men's golfer Bobby Wyatt.

More than 2,400 student-athletes were named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll in 2013-14. Members of the SEC Academic Honor Roll must have a 3.0 grade point average for either the previous academic year or his/her academic career at the SEC institution. The number represents almost half of the student-athletes that competed in the SEC last year.

MIZZOU PROGRAM HISTORY

The 2013 Mizzou soccer season was packed with emotional highs that propelled the Tigers throughout the year. The Tigers were in contention nearly every game of the 2013 season, with only one loss coming by more than one goal. In fact, Missouri played six overtime contests, the most since the 2009 season. Four of those matches went to double-overtime, with Mizzou posting a 1-0-3 record in those games.

Although the team's ultimate record of 8-9-3 was not what the Tigers expected, the season was still filled with plenty of notable achievements.

Mizzou kicked off its season at home against Pacific on Aug. 23. Junior Taylor Grant and sophomore Reagan Russell scored two goals apiece, with senior Danielle Nottingham assisting in two of those, as well as scoring a goal of her own. Russell's goals were the first of her career, scoring first in the 26th minute and then again in the 71st minute of play. The Tigers used the scoring output to easily win 5-1.

After a 2-1 overtime loss, at Memphis, the Tigers returned home to shutout SEMO, 4-0. Scoring the first two goals of her collegiate career, freshman Lauren Selaiden helped the team improve to 2-1 on the season. In the 55th minute, freshman Erin Webb picked up her first career point on an assist after helping junior Kaysie Clark score with a header.

The Tigers added another win, 3-0, against UMKC in Kansas City, Mo. Three different Tigers found the back of the net in the game, Grant, senior Alyssa Diggs and freshman Melanie Donaldson, whose second minute tally was the first of her Tiger career.

Following narrow losses to No. 9 Baylor and San Diego at the Texas A&M Invitational, Missouri responded with a 3-0 shutout against Eastern Illinois back in Columbia, Mo. The Tigers got goals from Donaldson, senior Dominique Richardson and sophomore Candace Johnson to propel them to victory.

On Sept. 15, the Mizzou traveled to Portland, Ore., to face longtime soccer powerhouse and No. 17 Portland. Once again, Donaldson struck early, putting the Tigers up 1-0 in the second minute. The Pilots came back to take a 3-1 lead before Grant got Missouri within one, 3-2, late in the second half. But the squad could not score the equalizer to fall to Portland to end non-conference play.

Mizzou traveled down to Starkville, Miss., to open SEC play to face Mississippi State. The game, played in a torrential downpour, resulted in a 3-1 win for the Tigers. Clark tallied the first goal for the team in the ninth minute of the game, followed by sophomore Macee Blanchard's first career goal with 12.9 seconds left in the first half. Selaiden added Mizzou's third and final goal, while redshirt junior goalkeeper McKenzie Sauerwein made eight saves in net.

After a close 1-0 loss to Georgia, the Tigers upset No. 7 Florida, 1-0, in a nationally televised match on ESPNU. Mizzou struck early as Clark notched the eventual game-winner in the ninth minute and the Tiger defense held strong to preserve the win. The victory marked Missouri's first win over a top-10 opponent since 2008 and the squad's first-ever win against the Gators.

Five days later, Mizzou traveled to Nashville, Tenn., for a matchup against Vanderbilt. Clark scored early for the second straight game, scoring her sixth goal of the year, for a 1-0 Tiger lead. Vanderbilt answered back in the 26th minute, but despite multiple goal attempts by both teams, the score remained even clear through two overtime periods.

The weekend also brought the annual Play for Pink game and Pack the Park promotion for which 1,734 fans were in attendance in a narrow 2-1 loss to Texas A&M. The crowd of 1,743 marked the third-best attendance figure in Mizzou soccer history.

Following a 1-0 loss at LSU where Sauerwein set Missouri's career record for minutes played in goal, the squad responded by defeating its second top-10 foe of the year. The Tigers earned a 2-1 upset of No. 7 South Carolina behind goals from Grant and Diggs. The tallies marked only the seventh and eighth goals allowed by the Gamecocks defense in 15 games.

Diggs earned SEC Offensive Player of the Week honors for her game-winner over South Carolina on Oct. 18. The award was the second of her Tiger career, as she was also named SEC Offensive Player of the Week on Oct. 8, 2012.

After another 1-1 tie, this time with Auburn, the Tigers continued to impress with another top-25 win against Kentucky. Mizzou battled for a 2-1 overtime win, giving Kentucky only its fourth loss of the season to that point. Sophomore Lauren Flynn kicked off the game by scoring the first in the 13th minute, five minutes before Kentucky scored a goal of its own for a 1-1 game. The score remained tied until senior Dominique Richardson scored the game-winning goal in the 107th minute. The win marked Mizzou's third win over a ranked opponent in 2013, the most since the 2008 season.

Thanks to her play against Kentucky and in a 1-1 tie with Tennessee, Sauerwein earned SEC Defensive Player of the Week honors on Oct. 28. She held Kentucky's high-powered offense to just one goal over 108 minutes of play in the 2-1 double overtime road win, then allowed one goal over 110 minutes of play to Tennessee in a 1-1 tie. Over the course of the two games, Sauerwein posted a 0.83 goals against average and made 12 saves.

Mizzou closed out the season with back-to-back losses against Arkansas, once in the regular season finale and once in the first round of the SEC Tournament.

After the year, Clark was awarded for her stellar play with a number of postseason honors. She earned a spot on the All-SEC first team and was named to the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) All-South Region second team.

During the course of the season, Sauerwein set multiple program records in goal. She set Mizzou career marks in games played in goal (63), games started in goal (57), saves (305) and minutes in goal (5627:33). Additionally, she concluded the year with 34 wins, just one shy of the program record.

Diggs was rewarded for her efforts in the classroom with a selection to the Capital One Academic All-District 6 first team, the second year in a row she earned the honor.

As a team, Missouri was honored with an NSCAA Team Academic Award for a team grade-point-average over 3.0. Additionally, the Tigers placed 11 student-athletes on the 2013 SEC Fall Honor Roll: Clark, Brittany Conley, Diggs, Lauren Flynn, Jessica Herrman, Candace Johnson, Nottingham, Brittanee Randle, Richardson, Russell and Brooke Williams.

2013 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- Missouri made it a perfect two-for-two in qualifying for the SEC Tournament in its first two years in the league. After an 8-5 conference record in 2012, the Tigers went 4-4-3 in SEC matches in 2013 to earn its second straight trip to Orange Beach, Ala.

- Mizzou knocked off three top-25 teams during the year, which were the most wins over ranked opponents were the most for the Tigers since 2008. On Sept. 29, Missouri recorded its first ranked win with a 1-0 defeat over No. 7 Florida. The Tigers then handed No. 7 South Carolina only its second loss of the season on Oct. 18 and posted a dramatic 2-1 double-overtime win at No. 25 Kentucky on Oct. 25.

- Mizzou's win over Florida also marked the Tigers' first win over a top-10 opponent since a 1-0 victory over No. 7 Ohio State on Aug. 26, 2011. With the 2-1 defeat of South Carolina, the squad collected its most wins over top-10 teams since 2008 as well.

- Junior Kaysie Clark earned All-SEC first team and All-NSCAA South Region second team honors after leading the Tigers with 15 points on six goals and three assists in 2013.

- Redshirt junior McKenzie Sauerwein set a slew of school records in her third season in goal. Sauerwein set Mizzou's career marks in games played in goal (63), games started in goal (57), saves (305) and minutes in goal (5627:33). In addition, Sauerwein concluded 2013 with 34 wins, just one shy of tying Tasha Dittamore's (2007-09) program record.

- The Tigers were in contention nearly every game of the 2013 season, with only one loss coming by more than one goal. In fact, Missouri played six overtime contests, the most since the 2009 season. Four of those matches went to double-overtime, with Mizzou posting a 1-0-3 record in those games.

- On Oct. 6 for Mizzou's "Pack the Park" and "Pink Out", 1,734 fans filed into Walton Stadium to watch the Tigers take on Texas A&M. That attendance figure was good enough to rank as Missouri's third-best single-game total in program history. The 1,734 fans was just 40 behind the second-biggest crowd (1,774) and 192 behind the all-time record of 1,926.

- Always stellar in the classroom, Missouri was honored as an NSCAA Team Academic Award recipient for having a team grade point average at 3.0 or higher. Additionally, Diggs earned academic honors of her own. The Coppell, Texas, native was named to the Capital One Academic All-District 6 first team for the second consecutive year.

- Also off the pitch, 11 Tigers were named to Fall SEC Academic Honor Roll: Clark, Brittany Conley, Alyssa Diggs, Lauren Flynn, Jessica Herrman, Candace Johnson, Danielle Nottingham, Brittanee Randle, Richardson, Reagan Russell and Brooke Williams.

NCAA SOCCER

- The Missouri Tigers have made the NCAA Tournament field five times in their history, with berths in 1999, 2003, 2007, 2008 and 2012.
- Mizzou owns a 2-3-2 mark in NCAA Tournament games.
- All seven of Missouri's NCAA games have been played at the team's home field of Walton Stadium.
- Mizzou's first-ever NCAA game, a 3-2 four overtime loss to Marquette in the 1999 first round, stands as Missouri's longest-ever match. The game went 142 minutes.
- The Tigers' all-time leading scorer Nikki Thole tallied Mizzou's first-ever NCAA Tournament goal in the game against Marquette.
- Three of Missouri's NCAA games, including the last two, have gone to penalty kicks following two overtime sessions.
- Six different Tigers have scored in NCAA Tournament games: Michelle Collins, Kristen Heil, Danielle Nottingham, Candace Ruff, Mallory Stipetich and Nikki Thole.
- Both Collins and Thole scored two goals in NCAA games. Both of Thole's came against Marquette in 1999, while Collins scored one against SEMO in 2007 and the other against Evansville in 2008.

The 2007 team celebrates after advancing to the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Marquette 3, Missouri 2 (4OT)

COLUMBIA, Mo. - The University of Missouri women's soccer team was defeated Wednesday, Nov. 10 in the first round of the NCAA Tournament by Marquette, 3-2 in four overtimes. The match, which was the longest in both programs' history, was decided in the 142nd minute when Marquette's Amy Hnatow scored her first career goal.

After 35 minutes of scoreless play, Marquete got on the board with a score from Kate Gordon, her ninth goal of the season. The score stayed 1-0 at halftime before Marquette added its second goal in the 54th minute. Erin Morgan netted her eighth of the season on a pass from Lannette Rossini and Marquette led the Tigers 2-0.

Just over two minutes later, Nikki Thole put MU on the scoreboard when she knocked home a goalie deflection with a soft headshot. Thole's 22nd of the season got Missouri back in the match and reenergized the Tigers.

After she was hauled down in the penalty box, Thole scored the equalizer on a penalty kick that beat Marquette's goalkeeper low right. From that point on, nearly a full match was played before the next goal was scored.

Three full overtimes, and most of the day's sunlight, came and went with the team's trading opportunities in the extra periods. At 141:13, Hnatow placed a shot over Missouri goalkeeper Jackie Adamec's head from the right side and Marquette had the victory.

Missouri 1, Eastern Illinois 0

COLUMBIA, Mo. - Appearing in the first NCAA Tournament match in four years, the Mizzou Tigers continued their hard fought post-season rally defeating Eastern Illinois 1-0. The victory marks Mizzou's first NCAA Tournament win in the history of the program.

After a lack luster first half, Mizzou didn't waste any time shining up the scoreboard during the second period. Just three minutes into play, Kristen Heil put Mizzou up 1-0 scoring her 10th goal of the season.

Preparing the scoring play deep in the midfield, forward Melissa Peabody sliced a pass to Adriene Davis in the midfield circle. One-touching a perfect pass to Heil at the top of the penalty box. Besting two EIU defenders and keeper Tiffany Groene, Heil deftly delivered the game-winner.

Kansas 2, Missouri 0

COLUMBIA, Mo. - Riding through a roller coaster season, the Missouri soccer team ended the 2003 campaign with loss in the second round of the NCAA Tournament to No. 16-ranked Kansas, 2-0.

Backed by solid defensive play, Mizzou's offensive squad was able to concentrate its efforts on the KU net. Jennifer Nobis pulled out an exhilarating break away, but lost the ball to an aggressive play by Jayhawk keeper Meghan Miller.

Mizzou's defensive squad continued its valiant efforts, thwarting Kansas in the backfield. Unable to best the Tigers one-on-one, the Jayhawk offense finally found fruition in one of their nine cornerkicks. Lobbing a ball into the penalty box, the two teams batted the ball through the arcade of bodies until Smith caught a sharp foot on the ball and sailed it over the goal line.

Down 1-0 with just 13 minutes ticking on the clock, Missouri frantically tried to even out the score. Despite several extraordinary attempts by Davis, the Tigers struggled to come back. The frenzy opened up KU's second scoring play that dropped MU with a 2-0 deficit with just two minutes left to play. Kimberly Karfonta lofted a ball from midfield to Carmel Kaplinger who dribbled the ball to score.

Missouri 1, SEMO 1 (2-0 PK)

COLUMBIA, Mo. - The 23rd-ranked Missouri soccer team tied Southeast Missouri State (SEMO), 1-1, with the Tigers advancing to the second round of the NCAA Tournament on penalty kicks. The Tigers and Redhawks were scoreless through 67:36 of action before the game was decided, 2-0, on junior Kat Tarr and junior goalkeeper Mallory Forst's shootout shots. This marks Missouri's second time in the 12-year history of the program in which the Tigers have advanced to the second round of the tournament and first since 2003.

Sophomore Michelle Collins came up with Missouri's first goal of the night, dribbling the ball in from the top of the box. Shooting from eight yards out, Collins beat the keeper to the right, scoring 16:26 into the game. The goal was Collins' 12th of the year.

After SEMO tied the game and a scoreless overtime session, five Tigers were selected from the lineup to take Missouri's penalty shots. Tarr made Missouri's first penalty kick attempt but SEMO missed all four of theirs before Forst stepped up and hit her shot to advance the Tigers to the second round.

USC 1, Missouri 0

COLUMBIA, Mo. - The eighth-ranked USC Trojans (16-3-2) defeated the 23rd-ranked Missouri Tigers (13-8-1), 1-0, in the second round of the NCAA Championship Sunday in Columbia, Mo.

USC scored the game-winning goal on a header from less than five yards out by midfielder Ashley Nick with 5:12 remaining in the second overtime period. USC midfielder Megan Ohai tallied the assist off a throw-in.

The first half ended scoreless, with Missouri out shooting the Trojans, 5-3. Missouri's best scoring chance came just four minutes into the game. Alysha Bonnick delivered two shots from inside the box, both saved by USC goalkeeper Kristin Olsen.

USC dominated the first overtime, out-shooting the Tigers, 5-2. Five minutes into overtime USC's Amy Rodriguez ripped a shot from just inside the box that was saved by keeper Mallory Forst. Missouri's only scoring chance came with 18 seconds left when Michelle Collins took a pass from midfielder Mo Redmond and had a break away. After a shifty move, Collins fired a shot to the near post from six yards out but the USC goalie smothered the shot.

Nov. 14, 2008 • Columbia, Mo.

Missouri 2, Evansville 0

COLUMBIA, Mo. - Michelle Collins and Candace Ruff each scored a goal in the first half to give Missouri a first-round victory and send them to the second round.

With rain falling on the field and 14 mph winds coming from the northwest, the Missouri women decided to waste no time in securing their spot in Sunday's regional championship game. For the first time this year the Tigers played in the rain and showed little struggle in earning their 12th shutout of the season. Michelle Collins started things early for Mizzou as she took a pass from Crystal Wagner and sent a shot past Evansville goalkeeper Theresa Bagby in the third minute of play. The goal marked Collins seventh on the season and gave the Tigers a 1-0 lead.

The Aces weren't able to keep Mizzou quiet. Just thirty minutes after Collins' goal Ashley Hamblin passed one to Candace Ruff for the Tiger's second score of the game and Ruff's second career goal. Missouri recorded 16 shots in the first period while Evansville attempted just one.

NCAA Tournament Second Round
Nov. 16, 2008 • Columbia, Mo.

Illinois 1, Missouri 1 (4-3 PK)

COLUMBIA, Mo. - Missouri ended its season in a penalty kick shootout to the Illinois Fighting Illini 4-3 after a 1-1 game after two overtimes in the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Freshman Kelsey Blincow, sophomore Alysha Bonnick and junior Bree Thornton all converted their penalty kicks against Illinois goalkeeper Alexandra Kapicka. The Illini made their fourth of five attempts and Kapicka made a save on senior Mallory Forst's shot to send Illinois to the sweet sixteen.

Illinois dominated early play in the second half and the Illini went up 1-0 in the 56th minute when Jackie Santacaterina flicked a ball up to Chichi Nweke. The forward fired a 14-yard shot past Dittamore and into the lower far post.

Missouri responded in the 74th minute when junior Michelle Collins played a ball up to sophomore Alysha Bonnick, who sent a pass to a wide open Mallory Stipetich. The freshman one-timed a 15-yard shot to the left of Kapicka and into the net for a 1-1 game.

Regulation ended with both teams tied at 1-1 so the contest went to overtime. With 12 seconds left in the second overtime, Missouri earned a free kick five yards past the box. Andrighetto floated a ball to the far post but Bonnick's header few wide of the goal to thwart the scoring chance and send the game to a shootout.

2012

NCAA Tournament First Round
Nov. 11, 2012 • Columbia, Mo.

Illinois 1, Missouri 1 (3-0 PK)

COLUMBIA, Mo. - Following a 1-1 game after 110 minutes of play between Mizzou and Illinois in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, the contest went to a penalty kick shootout, where Illinois advanced 3. The Tigers outshot the Fighting Illini 28-19 in the contest but had numerous shots hit off the post. Missouri concludes its season with a 14-7-1 record, while Illinois goes to 10-8-4.

The Tigers could not convert on their first three penalty kicks, while the Fighting Illini made their first three attempts to advance.

Illinois went up 1-0 in the 19th minute but Missouri battled back and used a goal from junior Danielle Nottingham to knot the score at 1-1 in the 53rd minute. Redshirt-freshman Lauren Flynn played a ball across the field to Nottingham, who was stationed outside the left corner of the box. Nottingham ripped a 20-yarder that sailed past Illinois' goalie and into the upper left netting. The tally was Nottingham's first of the season and ninth of her career. Flynn earned her first career assist on the play.

Mizzou sent a flurry of six shots toward the goal in the final nine minutes of regulation but could not take the lead. With just seconds remaining in the second half Grant blasted a shot but it flew just wide left of the goal.

Following a scoreless first overtime session, the Tigers again seemed likely to score in the second overtime. The home team managed to earn three corner kicks and got off three shots but again could not score to send the contest to a penalty kick shootout.

AUDREY J. WALTON STADIUM

The Audrey J. Walton Track-Soccer Stadium was opened in 1996 following a generous $1 million donation from Mrs. Walton.

Seating renovations were completed in 1998 bringing the complex maximum attendance to 2,500 fans per game. As the Tiger program grew in popularity, the stadium warranted another upgrade in a lighting project completed in 2001. Various supporters donated $160,000 to install a state of the art lighting system.

Rejuvenating he facility in 2004, the Mizzou Athletic Department completed a field turf project replenishing the playing field with new Bermuda sod.

The Audrey J. Walton Track-Soccer Stadium has played host to five NCAA soccer tournaments.
